Description of district's efforts to screen and identify dyslexia

Grade K & 1 use FAST earlyReading screening concepts of print, phonemic awareness, phonics and fluency. In Grades 2-9 we use aReading and the following aspects of reading are measured within that one score (varies slightly by grade level): concepts of print, phonological awareness, phonics, orthography and morphology, vocabulary, and comprehension. Students that score in the some or high risk categories may have characteristics of dyslexia

Description of district's efforts to screen and identify convergence insufficiency disorder

Grade K & 1 use FAST earlyReading screening concepts of print, phonemic awareness, phonics and fluency. In Grades 2-9 we use aReading and the following aspects of reading are measured within that one score: concepts of print, phonological awareness, phonics, orthography and morphology, vocabulary, and comprehension. Students that score in the some or high risk categories and display difficulties with writing may have characteristics of convergence insufficiency disorder
